Reflections of Life

Betty Ann Zuell-Williams was born to Mary Lee Briggs and Herbert Zuell in Sumter, South Carolina. She met and married Frank Edward Williams and from that union they had four beautiful sons. Betty A. Williams and her family relocated to New York City where she worked as a Home Attendant and joined Caldwell AME Zion Church, serving on the Usher Board.

Betty Ann or “Betty Boo” as she was affectionately called by her sons, family and friends. Her resilience is unmatched and she was devoted to her children and was always there for family and friends. Her door was always open to those that needed support. O Boy! did she love to cook, listen to music and liked to dance and would take over the dance floor.

“Betty Boo” was the eldest of eleven siblings, Nathaniel; Juanita; Anthony; Clara; Vivian; Carolyn; Leisa; Dwayne; Wanda and Gloria Zuell.

She is embraced by two of her sons (predeceased) Tony and Reginald. To cherish her memory are her loving children, Franklin; Angelo; Patrick; Patricia and Francine. A host of Grandchildren, Brandon; Tiffany; Reggie; Elquinn; Andre; Vanessa; T.J.; Asia; Shaquasia; Shanquill; Shantell; Startasia; Shaheim; Raquan and Tyshawn. Great-Grands, Elquinn Jr.; Janya; DeAndre and Quinton. Her dear loving Aunt Annie; two daughter in-laws, Danette and Loretta and her spiritual brother Marshall Brook and a host of cousins, family and special friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
