Life Reflections

*A precious one from us has gone
A voice we love is stilled
A vacant place is left behind
Which never can be filled*

Velma Moses Cox was born to the late Alfred and Estella Moses in Townsend, Virginia. She was the 2nd child born in the family of eight. She attended the Seaside School System and graduated from Tidewater Institute in Chesapeake, Virginia. She also attended Sawyer Business School in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Velma worked at RCA for many years and when they closed she then went to work for Commerce Clearing House where she retired as a Specialty Clerk.

Velma was a member of First Baptist Church in Cranford for many years.

Velma Moses Cox departed this life on Friday, January 24, 2014 at Overlook Hospital in Summit, New Jersey at the age of 94. She was the wife of the late Frederick Cox, Sr. Velma is preceded in death by her two sisters, Christine Moses and Hattie Spady; two brothers, Raymond Moses and David Moses

She leaves to cherish fond memories, one beloved and devoted son, Frederick Cox, Jr.; two grandchildren, Craig and Vonda Cox; one great grandson, O'Neil Anderson, who she loved dearly and her much loved Sandra Mandeville whom she loved and adored as a daughter; her brother, Andrew Moses (Fannie); two sisters, Katherine Jacob and Augustine Wescott (Earl); two godsons, Louis Spady, Jr. and Michael Jacob and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

Pall Bearers

Family and Friends of Velma Cox

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Acknowledgement

The family of Velma Cox acknowledges with sincere appreciation every thought and act of kindness expressed to us during this our hour of bereavement.

We will always keep you in our prayers.
May God continue to richly bless you.
