Reflections of Life

8th Wonder of the World - The Champ

Russell Lawrence Jackson, Sr., was born on December 6, 1942 in Passaic, NJ to the late Mable Mann and Frank Jackson.

Russell attended the Passaic School System. He later married Georgia Jackson. Russell was employed at Standard Tile and Passaic Housing. He was also a good salesman with his Loose Joint Shirts and Famous Amos Cookies.

Russell would give you the shirt of his back. He was very trustworthy and didn't play with his money. Pool was one of his favorite passions. He was also a "pool shark" as he would call himself however he was very good at it. He loved Jazz and the rapper artist Biggie Small. He also enjoyed watching Tennis, Golf and Boxing. He had a great love for the City of Passaic he was involved in the Speer Village Summer Program he also ran for Mayor of the City of Passaic.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mable Mann and Frank Jackson and his siblings, Thomas Jackson, John Jackson, Elmer Jackson, Harry Jackson, Charlie Jackson, William Jackson, Mary Curtis, Violet Phillips, Lou and Edward Jackson, Walter, Esabella and Sara.

On Thursday, January 23, 2014, Russell was called home.

Russell is survived by his sons, Russell L. Jackson, Jr., Kenneth A. Jackson, Umbachi G. Jackson of Passaic and Lord David Jackson of Boca Raton, Florida; daughters, SoLee Butler of Phoenix, Arizona and Alicia Jackson of Clifton; brother, Percy Jackson; thirteen grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with time of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now...He set me Free.*
