Life Reflections

Lillie Mae Hurling was born on May 9, 1939 in Greensborough, North Carolina, daughter of the late Annie Mae Woods and Henry Simpson. She received her education in the Chester Public School system and graduated from Finley High School in Chester, South Carolina.

She came to Roselle, New Jersey where she met and married Clarence Hurling, Sr. this union were blessed with two sons and one daughter. In 1963, the family moved to Linden.

Lillie was employed as an Assembler for Thomas & Betts in Garwood for 15 years, before retiring in 1999.

Lillie was a member of Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church for many years where she sang in the Morning Choir and was a member of South Carolina Club.

She was a very family-oriented person who loved to be around family and friends, and was always willing to lend a helping hand when needed. She enjoyed being grandma to her grandchildren and the many children she was a second mother. You would always see Lillie on her front porch with all of the kids around her or in her yard. She was also well known for her cooking skills at cookouts; for instance, she would make Peach Cobbler and Apple pies. We all know that you could always count on her to give you a good laugh and a piece of her mind whether you like it or not.

On Saturday, January 25, 2014, surrounded by her devoted family, Lillie Mae Hurling departed this earthly life to that glorious heavenly home on high.

She was predeceased by her husband, Clarence Hurling, Sr. on June 16, 1999 and her brother, Bobby Simpson on Febraury 19, 2008.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter, Valerie Hurling-Hall (Roy); two sons, Clarence Hurling, Jr. (Crista) and Clifford Hurling; twelve grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; two brothers, Larry and Lawrence Simpson (Ollie); six sisters, Clarice Norman (Issac), Bertha Worthy (Deacon John), Mattie Hancock (Rev. Larkin), Elaine Haynes (Roosevelt), Cathy Simpson and Cheryl Pendergrass (Kenneth); uncle, Thomas Woods; aunt, Helen Woods; a special cousin, Charles E. Bailey, Sr.; nieces, nephews, three sisters-in-law, Marilyn Carolina, Beatrice Hall and Martha Simpson; brother-in-law, Norman Hurling (Vivian), and a host of other relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
