Obituary

Laura Moore was born on February 4, 1924 in Henderson, North Carolina. Her parents were Allen Vaughn and Rosa Hicks Vaughn. They both died when she was a young girl. She was the last of twenty-one children.

She was raised by her older sisters, Gladys, Annie and Effie. Her sister Annie moved to New Jersey. Laura completed her high school education in Orange, NJ. She met her husband, Samuel W. Moore, Jr. in Orange, NJ. They fell in love and married October 26, 1945, seven children were born to this marriage.

She loved her family. Laura and Sam would get in the Station Wagon and drive to Phila, PA, Virginia and North Carolina to see family and friends. She gave loving support to her family and always saw the good in everyone. She loved cleaning, cooking, entertaining family and friends, traveling and shopping.

Laura and Sam moved to 34 So. 12th Street Newark, NJ in 1950. The owner of the house was Willie Mae Grant. She was one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Laura began to study the Bible. She was baptized on January 18, 1954. She was always a zealous Publisher for Jehovah's Kingdom. Laura helped others to become Publishers. She worked on the construction projects of the Monroe NY and Jersey City Assembly Halls. She always showed hospitality to everyone and loved her spiritual family.

She is predeceased by her husband, Samuel W. Moore, by her sons, Sammy and Steven Moore (who only lived 6 weeks).

Laura was a beloved mother of Sandra L. Bradberry and her husband, Charles, Valerie Branch and her husband Robert, Stewart Moore and his wife, Claudette, Craig A. Moore and Timothy E. Moore; cherished mother-in-law of Debra Moore; dear aunt of Edna Morris, Leo Smith and Ella Scheerer. She is also survived by eighteen grandchildren, twenty-eight great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

See Yourself When All Is New

Revelation 21:1-5

1. Just see yourself, just see me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.
Think how you'll feel, how it will be,
To live in peace, to be truly free.

No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by or God cannot ever fail.
The time will have come for a new earthly start,
The song of our praises will pour out from our hearts:

(CHORUS)

“Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our songs;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong.”

2. Now see yourself, and see me to;
And look ahead to a world that is new.
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.
All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.
He now shall awaken those sleeping in death;
Their voices will join us with ev'ry grateful breath:
(Chorus)

Revelation 21:4

And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.”

Together

Death is nothing at all - Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be the household word it always was. Let it be spoken without effort. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was: there is absolutely unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is past: nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as before — only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Jehovah.
