Obituary

Dijonae Donyel Coleman best known as “Nay Nay”, born to Yolanda June Francis October 10, 1992 In New York City. Dijonae was raised by her mother and family on 140th Street.

She attended Public School P.S 30 in Manhattan and later moved to Queens where she completed her schooling, grades 3rd thru 5th. In 2005, Dijonae moved to Georgia with her family where she continued her education at Dacula Middle School and graduated from Collins Hill High School Special Education Program May 2012.

Dijonae was a fun loving kid that loved people, the outdoors and most of all music. She lived her twenty-one years of life to the fullest. Her charismatic spirit touched everyone she encountered. If you met her once she left a lasting impression.

Dijonae formed a personal relationship with everyone she knew, whether it was through a dance, a song or a saying. When we moved to Georgia she started to form and touch as many lives as she did in New York. Even though she was physically, mentally and verbally challenged her loving fun spirit and ability to communicate over powered any challenge that she ever faced. The majority of visitors here today know Dijonae on a personal level. The love that she gave and received back left a enormous impact of joy in our lives.

She will be deeply missed but never forgotten. Dijonae leaves to adore and cherish her loving memory; three sisters, Lashaun Jackson 12, Yomari Jackson 10 and Kayla Jackson 8; her loving parents, Yolanda and Lashaun Jackson; three aunts, Cynthia Beauford, Ceta Rock and her favorite Auntie Kim; three uncles, Milton Francis, Gilbert Beauford and her favorite Eddie Meyers; one grandma through marriage, Nancy Rachel; one aunt through marriage, Erica Rachel and one uncle through marriage, Roy Bryant; 1st cousins, Shakenna, Gladys, Sintora, Equisha, Shaniece, Rhanae, Ronnell, Rashad, Luther, Javon, Rason, Rhan, Raquan; and a host of extended relatives and close friends.

The Day of Your Home Going March 14, 2014 your mission was complete on earth. God allowed us to adopt you for 21 beautiful and memorable years. On the 14th day of March God came back to take you to your " Real "home, His " Kingdom ". Although the lack of your presence is unbearable we know that you are getting the best of care. You will be able to dance and sing to the best music ever. You will continue to laugh with all the wonderful Angels that were awaiting for your arrival. You know our hearts are filled with pain but you as well as God have prepared your Mom and Dad for this very day. We know that Your life was given to us because we were chosen to do an assignment that was only made for us. God makes no mistakes. He picks his fruit very carefully. God gave you to us so we will be drawn closer to him in prayer, faith, strength and in the Holy Spirit. He knew that we would need those tools in order to sustain the pain that would be set upon us. If anyone have ever lost a child it's a pain that you can't explain but the more you trust and depend on God he will get you through it. We would like to say thank you father God for the adoption, for your blessings, grace and continuous presence in our lives. We will continue to trust, believe and honor you at all times.

Honorary Aunts Kim and Aaliyah, thank you both for all the love and attention you provided. Honorary Uncles Eddie Meyers thank you for your patience and understanding. Last but not least Ray Rock thank you for being a huge contributor to her musical talent. In my Djonae voice Aaight.
