Reflections of Life

Sha'Kirah Alexander was born October 26, 1979 in Paterson, New Jersey to the late Bernard Slade and Wakine Alexander, and resided in Delran, NJ.

She was educated in the Paterson Public School System, and relocated to Delran, NJ several years ago.

She departed this life on March 10, 2014.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: one daughter, Dahsiyoni Pearson Alexander; one son, Tizayah Alexander; one brother, Ibn Quadir Alexander; and her maternal grandfather, Joseph Alexander; and a host of other relatives, friends, and neighbors.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
