Obituary

Leroy Davenport, was born on July 3, 1921 in Farmville, Virginia to the late loving Samuel Davenport and mother Mattie Davenport.

He was a supervisor at St. Joseph Hospital in Yonkers, New York for over forty-five years. He was liked by his employees and did an excellent job. Also, he was liked by his neighbors and friends.

Leroy loved to joke, loved his Kangol hats, and enjoyed reading the Daily News and Amsterdam News. He enjoyed listening to Jazz and watching basketball and baseball.

On March 17, 2014, Leroy was called home.

He is predeceased by his wife, Omega June Davenport.

He leaves to mourn: his stepdaughter, Louise Owens and great friend like a brother, Jacob Brockington. He is also survived by a host of friends.

“Those we love don't go away; they walk beside us everyday. Unseen, unheard but always near. Still loved, still missed and very dear.”

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
