Obituary

Nathaniel William Wilson AKA Charlie Brown, was born January 16, 1950 to Queenie Wilson and the late Samuel Wilson in Charleston, SC. He was granted his angel wings on March 16, 2014.

He was a loving brother to Betty Brown, Gloria (Ty), Sandra (James), in addition to Samuel Wilson, Jr., James Brown and Shirley Boyd who preceded him in death. They all helped to make his childhood memorable and lasting. Especially in school where he gained the nickname “Charlie Brown” because of his witty sense of humor, his gift of gab and his ability to brighten anyone’s day.

Charlie attended public schools in Charleston, SC until moving to New York City in the early 70’s, where he met and later married the love of his life, Glennie McCloud. From this union he gained his in-laws, Robert and Erma McCloud along with three sisters-in-law and two brothers-in-law.

Charlie meant the world to many people, it was nothing for him to sacrifice himself for others. He was compassionate, loving, funny and the utmost family man. His family, especially his children, were his heart.

Charlie leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Glennie; mother, Queenie Wilson; two daughters, Joy and Angel; one son, his name sake Nathaniel; five grandchildren, Briani, Banae, Glennie, Andrew and Ian; one great-grandson, Mason; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends.

*There are many things in life
That we cannot understand;
But we must trust God’s judgement,
And be guided by His hand,
And all who have blessings,
Can rest safely in His care;
For He promises “Safe Passage”
On the “wings of faith and prayer.”*

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.*
