Obituary

Frank Dewey Link III, affectionately known as Dewey by his family and friends was born September 27, 1978. He was the 1st born son of Frank (who preceded him in death just 3 months ago) and Patricia Link. Born in Jersey City, New Jersey he was the fourth child of six siblings Karma Malene, Najah Afi, Bibi Ayanna, Janardan Vernon, and Jamilla Yeshi.

Dewey attended James F. Murray School and graduated from Patrick Henry High School in Roanoke, Virginia. He was a lifelong resident of Jersey City and worked as a Service Deli clerk for a number of years.

Dewey always looked out for everyone else, his family and friends. Although he was my little brother he was like my big brother. That's why I called him my lil big brother. (Karma Link) Dewey was a big brother to all of us. He was very protective of his family especially his sisters and would not let anything happen to us. He offered a helping hand whenever he could. Dewey enjoyed cooking and was pretty good at it too. He could also fix and organize just about anything. He took good care of our Dad in his last months and all of us.

Not only was he my brother, he was my best friend. (Jamilla Link) He would laugh with you, and cry with you. He had our back and anybody close to him. He protected us and when he loved he really loved with all of him. Dewey had a big heart, warm; loving and sensitive. Everyone loved him and we wish we could have done more for him. A piece of all of us is missing..."Keep the faith baby" that's what he always said and that is what we will have to do from now on. We will never forget you and you will forever be in our hearts. We love you Dewey.

Dewey's sunset was on Sunday, March 16, 2014. He leaves behind his mother Patricia A. Richardson of Kauai, HI, siblings – Michael Penn of Baltimore, Maryland, Karma M. Link of Bloomfield, NJ, Najah A. Link of Jersey City, NJ, Bibi A. Link of Roanoke, VA, Janardan V. Link of Clifton, NJ, Jamilla Y. Link of South River, NJ and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. 15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. 16 For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.

Thessalonians 4:14-17

I see a beautiful city and a brilliant people rising from the abyss. I see the lives for which I lay down my life, peaceful, useful, prosperous and happy. I see that I hold a sanctuary in their hearts, and in the hearts of their descendants, generations hence. It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done; it is a far, far better rest that I go to, than I have ever known. "A Tale of Two Cities"-Charles Dickens
