Obituary

Caprice Sonia Davis, forty-three years old of South Orange, NJ, was born in Newark, New Jersey on February 8, 1971 to Kwame and Antoinette Davis.

As a Navy brat, Caprice had the opportunity to travel overseas when she and her family moved to Puerto Rico in 1974. After residing there for five years, they moved to Groton, Connecticut, where she attended elementary school until the family returned to New Jersey, where she graduated from Columbia High School in 1989.

She began working full-time at the A&P Supermarket for a brief time before embarking on a new career with the U.S. Postal Service in 1994 and has worked there ever since. Caprice always loved to learn new things and used her talents to develop her skills and eventually attained a managerial position within the post office.

Caprice was honest, loving, compassionate, and devoted to her family. She took pleasure in laughing and spending time with loved ones. Her family was always an integral part of her life and she enjoyed being a part of it. In 1997, she added to this family with the birth of her daughter, Imani Laila, who was undoubtedly the love of her life. Caprice was also a supportive and loyal friend. Throughout her life, she made numerous lasting friendships which she cherished and nurtured with joy.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Tyrone Davis.

She is survived by: her daughter, Imani Mosquera; her parents, Kwame and Antoinette Davis; her grandmother, Essie Dill; her siblings, Kevin Davis (Monique), La Von Davis-Harris (Jerome) and Aziza Alexander (Daniel); her sister-in-law, Edna Davis; ten nephews and nieces, Kia Davis, Naichelle Davis, Nafis Harris, Rashanda Gray, Daaíyah Harris, Umar Frost, Je Lani Harris, Rashad Davis, Zahra Alexander and Zachary Alexander; and a host of family members and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
