Obituary

Paul Edward Coleman, was born on March 1, 1935 in Fairmont, West VA to the late John and Ida Coleman. He was a proud Army and Airforce Veteran who was known to fly The American flag during the holidays.

He attended Dunbar High School and West VA. State College. Paul was a resident of NJ for forty years. He was employed by New York City Transit for twenty years as a Diesel Mechanic.

Paul enjoyed having parties at home with family and friends. He loved Spanish food and enjoyed listening to music.

Paul and Carole were married for almost fifty years and from that union their son, Paul Anthony Coleman was born June 1966, which he preceded him in death on December 28, 2013, now they are together.

Paul is survived by: wife, Carole; daughter, Michele; granddaughter, Rebecca; sister, Mary Brooks; niece, Darlene; sister-in-law, Verna Mongerard; brother-in-law, Donald Myers; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
