Cameron William Wise Jamel Fields-(Allah)

Wise was born on December 12, 1951, at home on West 123rd Street and 7 Ave. to the late Anita Fields and the late William Fields. Wise was the fourth child out of eight children.

He was raised in Harlem, then moved to the Bronx. Wise was formerly educated in the NYC Public School system. He was a five Percenter for over many many years.

He worked as a Messenger for several years. Wise was dedicated to his school the Nation Allah School, and PSI Program.

Wise was always out selling socks and balloons in front of his school and talking to the Gods and the Earths. Wise loved to watch basketball, football, karate movies, gangster movies and bus trips to Atlantic City. He also enjoyed home cooked meals, parties and music. Wise will be remembered for saying or doing something that make you laugh or smile. He like to enjoy life to the fullest.

Wise did his dance called “Jelly Belly”. He loved to dress. Wise was married to Laverne Parker (Mayasia). She was a devoted, loving, faithful wife and major part of Wise’s life.

Ronette Andrews was Wise’s Home Health Aide for many years. She was a very dedicated and caring worker.

On April 5, 2014, Wise departed this world at Bronx Lebanon Hospital.

He leaves: four sisters, Judith Smith, Lenora Brown, Vivian Wallace and Beverly Lee; one brother, Steven Jackson and two brothers preceded him in death, Raheem Fields and Gregory (Kareem) Fields; ten nephews, four nieces, nine great nephews, twelve great nieces, one great niece-in-law, one great nephew-in-law, one cousin, Renee Hicks and family, two brothers-in-law, (Borne and James).

Wise had a kind heart and open ear for anybody that needed it.

*Thank you for all that you have done for Allah's nation
The smiles and support you given to The Earth's and The black women in general. And reminding the God's that we must be a supreme security force that always protect the women and babies of our nation and the world. That we the God's and Earth's must always live out the knowledge and understandings of Allah's mathematics alphabets and 120 % of life in reality. By being righteous in all that we do in life.
We thank you Wise Jamel Allah and your great family
