Obituary

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born and a time to die. Ecc. 3:1-2 Mommy's destiny is divine and sure.

Regina Manawar Squires made her transition on Wednesday, April 9th 2014, at Newark Beth Israel Hospital, Newark, NJ. Regina, known as Jean Myers was born on March 3rd 1941 to parents William Myers and Gladys Verwayne in Suddie Hospital Essequibo Coast, Guyana S.A.

She attended Johanna Cecelis and Kitty Methodist School. She worked with Guyana Police Force as a cook for many years.

On December 31st, 1969, she tied the nuptial knot to the late David Manawar. Regina also lived and worked in England for a short time, before migrating to the United States in 1996.

Motherhood is a blessed state of being. It is a lofty porch upon which without motherhood very few ascend. Regina relishes, friendliness and compassion. She was a labor of love as she safely embraced the many challenges of life.

Even in her time of pain, you would find Regina in church serving or at home cooking many of her family's favorite dishes. She would always remember to feed the Sunday School children. Regina was a praying woman who put God first in all her deliberations.

Regina worked as a Home Health Aide. For many years she fostered numerous senior adults in her home. This mother/grandmother means given freely of herself. She always responded to the needs of her family and others. She was a kind, helpful, thoughtful, loving, forgiving, protective and supportive person.

Regina's quest for God led her to membership at Temple of the Abundant Life a truth teaching church, under the leadership of Rev. Ingrid/Vibert Chance. She was also a strong and loving member of the New Jerusalem Temple of Apostolic Faith under the leadership of Pastor Julius A. Caesar.

Regina leaves to cherish fond memories: her beloved husband, Charles Squires; children, Lan Clot Myers, Delmar, Vanessa (England), David, Yalka, Odessa, Tiffany and Chrisel Manawar; brothers, William, Terry, Keith and Colin Myers and Aubrey Verwayne; sisters, Verna Myers and Barbara Verwayne; son-in-law, Joseph Kingston; daughter-in-law, Odiana Manawar; sisters-in-law, Jean and Vido Myers; grandchildren, Delite, Diane, David, Jr., Darran, Emanuel, Darryl, Deskiny, Tasleah, Jared and Jeremiah and her beloved baby girl, Joshlyn; great grandchildren, Nathan and Nevaeh; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends from Guyana, England and USA. She was predeceased by her daughter, Diane.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
