Reflections of Life

Lily Mae “Lil” Jenkins was born on August 3, 1929 in Huntington, New York, daughter of the late Willie Mae Terry Moore and Thomas Moore.

She graduated from Central High School in Newark, New Jersey in 1948.

Lily met the love of her life Willie R. Jenkins, Sr. and started their family in Newark, New Jersey before moving to Roselle in 1965.

She was employed as a Solderer at Electro Catheter Company in Rahway, New Jersey for 11 years before retiring in 1982.

She was a faithful member of Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church in Roselle for many years.

Lily was a quiet spirited woman with great strength who loved her family. She was best known for her cooking skills and family gatherings where everyone wanted to know what “Lil” made. She also had a love for God, music, dancing and spending time with her family.

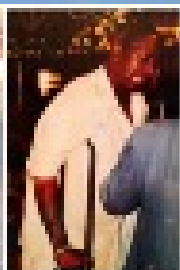

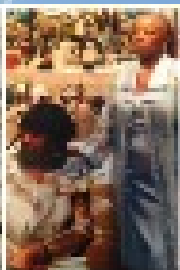

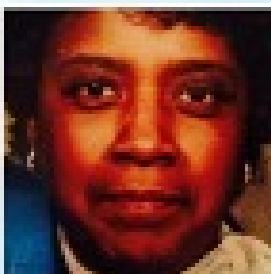

On Sunday, April 13, 2014, Lily Mae Jenkins entered into eternal rest with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

She was predeceased by her son, Gregory Olin Cook and three brothers: Harvey, Horace and Tommy Moore.

Lily leaves to cherish her memory, her husband of 56 years, Willie Rob Jenkins, Sr.; three daughters: Patricia Cook Branch (Richard) of Roselle, New Jersey, Cassandra Jenkins Williams (Louis) of Linden, New Jersey and Denise Jenkins Williams (Octavius) of Charlotte, North Carolina; one son, Willie Rob Jenkins, Jr. (Melinda) of Roselle, New Jersey; four sisters-in-law: Doris Moore, Sara Mae Wilson, Mary Jenkins and Whlemania Ferdinand; brother-in-law, Thomas Jenkins; eighteen grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

Grandsons of Lily Mae Jenkins

Dear Grandma

I never thought this day would come. Thank you for teaching me and helping me grow into the man I have become. You held me down whether I was good or bad, made me smile when I was feeling low and sad. Now I got to be strong and be there for Granddad. Imma make sure he takes all his medicine- I remember what you said.

When it was football season you never missed a home game. Win or lose you always cheered my name. Awww man imma miss them turkey wings, Collard greens, Macaroni & cheese with a glass of iced tea. I can't forget the sweet potato pie. "Huh." You made sure that boy eat.....huh you so sweet.

You'll call 10 times a day to make sure I'm okay.

But I'm okay imma be strong. I still feel your presence when I walk in our home. I know you're always with me and I'll never walk alone. Minutes left you squeezed my hand and the grip... was real strong.

I still got all your CDs and listen to your favorite songs.

I remember our last dance ....me holding up your right arm.

Imma go to my grave with the memories of the sacrifices you made.

Grandma you are amazing, you deserve a standing Ovation.
