Obituary

Yo Landa Toi Moore (affectionately known as Momma Toi) the daughter of Allen Moore and Carol Moore was born in Newark, NJ on January 30, 1968. On Friday, April 25, 2014 the Lord called her home.

Toi was educated in the Newark Public School system graduating from Malcolm X Shabazz High School.

Toi accepted Christ at an early age, she was saved, baptized, and born again.

Toi was blessed to have two children son, Jerrold Allen Moore and daughter, Destiny Deja Moore.

Toi loved working with children and worked as a teachers aide for several years. Additionally she was employed by Comcast.

She leaves to cherish her many fond memories: loving parents, Allen and Carol Moore; two uncles, Bishop Moore and Halim Quddus; three aunts, Dolores Timmons, Jonnie Bowler and Iman Mohammed; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
