Obituary

Caudie Henrietta Jackson was born November 15, 1944 in Harlem Hospital in Manhattan, NY to Cleola Henrietta (Mann) and Rodney Henderson.

C

She graduated in 1963 from Weequahic High School in Newark, NJ. She went on to earn college credits in various areas of studies from Essex County College. She also received an A+ certification from the Newark Urban League.

A

U

Caudie met Roy Lee Jackson, Sr. during a brief stay in the hospital in 1962 and they went on to wed in 1964. Through this union they have four children.

D

Although she united herself with Christ at an early age, her last church home was New Ephesus Baptist Church in East Orange, NJ where she served as a Church Clerk, Deaconess as well as a choir member.

J

Over the years she has worked for various employers, with Newark Beth Israel and General Motors being among them. She retired from her most recent employer RPM Development in Montclair, NJ December 2013 after working there for five years.

E

Caudie, lovingly known as Mama Cissy by her grandchildren, loved to travel, shop for her family and crochet as well as doing home improvements on their home. She is also known as the spoiler of the grandchildren. Her famous quotes were "So what? You only have one life" and "That sounds like a plan".

A

On Thursday, May 8, 2014, after a lengthy battle with health issues, surrounded by her husband and children, God saw fit to let her rest.

Caudie was preceded in death by her parents, Cleola Henrietta (Mann) and Rodney Henderson.

K

She is survived by: her husband of 50 years, Roy Lee Jackson, Sr. of Newark, NJ; four children, Margaret D. Henderson of Newark, NJ, Jacqueline Jackson-Harrison (Melvin) of Piscataway, NJ, Carolyn Jackson of Toledo, OH and Roy Lee Jackson, Jr. (Leslie) of Hillside, NJ; one brother, Rodney J. Henderson (Marietta) of San Antonio, TX; two brothers-in-law, Robert Jackson (Marilyn) of Laurinburg, NC, Luther Bratt Jackson of Hayward, CA; five sisters-in-law, Mary L. Atterberry of Laurelton, NY, Mattie Jackson of Roosevelt, NY, Pearl Jackson of Laurinburg, NC, Joyce Jackson of Brooklyn, NY and Jeane Jackson of Brooklyn, NY; son of her heart, Frank Jones; daughters of her heart, Tracey Walker, Tisha Brooks and Irma Hernandez; fifteen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
