Obituary

Louise Hill was born April 6, 1929 to Leroy and Catherine Hill in South Carolina. She lived with her grandmother in Red Point, South Carolina until 1942, when she came to live in Newark with her mother.

Louise early education was in the Newark School system, until she became ill. She spent several years in the hospital where she met and later married, Ernest Phipps.

Louise worked for many years for Millers Manufacturing Company in Newark from which she retired in 1991, when she was sixty-two years old.

Throughout her life, Louise could be found with those who loved and served the Lord. She has spent many years in service at Bethel Baptist Church. Although she participated in many activities she particularly enjoyed singing in the choir.

When the weather was warm you could find Louise in the garden working with her beloved flowers or on the porch talking with neighbors and friends. Among the things she loved was music, eating out, especially the Navada and State Dinners (where she will be missed). She will also be missed by those needing a kind word or a helping hand because she was known to offer both.

Louise leaves to mourn: her brother, Leroy Hill and his wife, Berta; nieces, Delores and Ruby; nephews, Russell and Rudy; cousins, Doris Williams and Pauline Phipps; and many relatives and friends.

I Have A Place In Heaven

*Please don't sing sad songs for me,
Forget your grief and fears,
For I am in a perfect place,
Away from pain and tears...
I'm far away from hunger,
And hurt and want and pride.
I have a place in Heaven,
With the Master at my side.
My life on earth was very good.
As earthly lives can go
But paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know.
My heart is filled with happiness
And sweet rejoicing too,
To walk with God is perfect peace
A joy forever new.*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to thank all who have extended support for, spoken a kind word to, or done some act of kindness during their time of bereavement. May God bless you all for your thoughtfulness and concern.
