Reflections of Life

Cecil T. Norfleet was born on February 14, 1930 to James Norfleet, Sr. and Gertrude Sessems-Norfleet in Hackensack, New Jersey. He was raised in Manhattan, New York.

Cecil was employed for thirty-six years at Garden State Converter in Bayonne, New Jersey from November 1969 - July 1995 as a Machinery Worker.

Cecil was predeceased by his wife, Betty L. Norfleet, son, Turner Roberts, brother, James Norfleet, Jr. and sister, Fannie Mae Norfleet.

Cecil leaves to cherish his precious memories: his children, Sabrina Roberts, Michie (Raymond) Baker, Kachite (Wayne) Speller, Betty (Carson) Barnett, Mary Lane, Cecilia Norfleet (Kyle Ash) and Thomasina Norfleet-Thorn (Donna Thorn); ex-wife, Jennie A. Norfleet; step daughter, Constance Watson; twenty-seven grandchildren; forty-seven great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Cecil was a loving husband, father, son, grandfather, uncle and friend.

“The Greatest Gift I Ever Had Came From God I Call Him Daddy”

*To those I love and those that love me, When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone So grieve for a while for me if you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part So bless the memories within your heart I won't be far away, for life goes on So if you need me, call and I will come Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near And if you listen with your heart you'll hear All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone I'll greet you with a smile and say, “Welcome Home.”*

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
