Obituary

Lillie Mae Brockington, born on May 5th 1916 to Mrs. and Mr. Webb Richardson in Commerce, Georgia, the oldest of six siblings, Dorthy, Doris, Ollie, Ann, and Mary Ann. From humble beginnings and a vision of a better life she headed up North.

She later met and married the late Charles Brockington with whom she built a union with and raised five children, Diane, Charles Jr., Barry, Regina and Joyce Brockington.

A proud homemaker, with various trades accomplishments under her belt. A loving devoted Wife, Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother. She was a faithful dedicated parishioner at St. Charles Borromeo Church of Harlem, NY, but her alliance was to her family with whom she devoted her life to.

Strength, Courage, Beauty, Dignity and Grace all that embodied who Lillie Mae Brockington was, a giving heart to all who came in contact with her, you didn't need family genes to be considered family.

Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother, to the world you may be one person but to us you are the world, the pillar of our family, the strength in our bones, the compassion in our hearts, your presence will be truly missed but not forgotten.

We love you Granny!

Final Disposition

Rosehill Crematory
Linden, New Jersey

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am the thousand winds that blow;
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle Autumn rain.
When you awake in the morning, hush;
I am the swift uplifting rush,
Or quick birds in circle flight.
I am soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.*
