In memory of
Shawn L. Jones Jr.

I imagine if I was given a moment just a single slice of your past
I would hold it close forever and that moment will always last.
I'd put that moment in a safe within my hearts abode I could open it when I wanted and only I would know the code.
I could choose a time of laughing, a time of happiness and fun.
I could choose the time you tried me and everything you've done.
But I sat and thought about what moment would always make me smile one that would always push me to go the extra mile.
If I'm feeling sad and low or I'm struggling with what to do I can go and open my little safe and watch your life play through.
There are moments I can think of that would lift my spirits every time.
Like moments that you picked me up when the road was hard to climb.
For me to only pick one moment to cherish, save and keep is proven really difficult as I've gathered up a heap.
I've dug deep inside my heart found the safe and looked inside.
I still had room for lots of memories in fact hundreds if I tried.
So I'm building my own library embedded in heart for all the moments spent with you before you had to part.
I can open it up whenever I like, pick a moment and watch it through my little library acts as a promise that I'll never forget about you.

Dedicated to the memory of my nephew
Shawn L. Jones Jr.
