Arnaud Georges, Jr. graced the world with his beautiful spirit and presence on November 3, 1976, in Petit Goave, Haiti. He was the beloved son of Arnaud and Vestha Georges.

Education was important to Arnaud. He attended L'école Sacre Coeur in Haiti and came to the United States in 1987. Arnaud graduated from Irvington High School in 1994 and went on to earn a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics with a Special Education Certification from Kean University. In addition, he attended Eco-Culinary School. Arnaud became a head chef at Victoria Muse in Booton, New Jersey. Because he valued education, Arnaud worked for the Elizabeth Board of Education as a Special Education Teacher for more than six years. Arnaud worked with Autistic children. All children loved him as he encouraged them to take pride in their academic achievements. Arnaud was a champion of children, a motivator, and an excellent role model. His students affectionately referred to him as Mr. G., not only because of his name but because of his grand stature they admired his height and impeccable fashion sense.

Arnaud was playful and energetic. He truly believed that sleeping was overrated, and he proved it by spending his time watching soccer games, making people laugh, volunteering for Career Day, and spreading his warmth and love to ALL of those who came in contact with him. Arnaud was a family man. He helped raise his nieces and always attended their school functions to provide praise and encouragement. Family members described him as loyal, trustworthy, loving and caring.

Sadly, Arnaud leaves behind a host of loved ones who will miss him dearly: wife, Martine Georges Olelete; Mother, Vestha Georges; siblings, Johny, Emmanuel, Maxime, Fanouska, Jean-Luc, Gregory, Jodell and Marcia; stepson Allen; nephews and nieces, Carl Max, Naomi, Brittney, Amber, Justin, Chelsey, Olivia, and Max; and a host of other relatives and friends.

To know Arnaud was to love him. Arnaud will be missed.

Togetherness

Death is nothing at all - I have only slipped away into the next room.

Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be the household word it always was.

Let it be spoken without effort.

Life means all that it ever meant.

It is the same as it ever was: there is absolutely unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight?

I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.

All is well. Nothing is past: nothing is lost.

One brief moment and all will be as before — only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Christ.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
