Obituary

We are here today, May 31, 2014 to honor the life of Dorothy Charles who succumbed to her illness on May 25, 2014 at Calvary Hospital in Bronx, New York.

Dorothy Charles was born on January 11, 1928 in Sumter, South Carolina. She was also known as Auntie to her family.

Auntie joined her mother, Flora Charles, father, Sherman Charles, sisters, her precious daughter, Barbara Charles and other family members. She loved to dance, enjoyed life, going to the New Jersey shore and helping others.

Auntie a former world traveler, loved the outdoors. She could work her walker like no other. She would breeze through the streets of New York as she greeted and smiled at everyone each morning when she could. She would take the MTA bus on various lines to keep active as she enjoyed the scenery.

In the early 1970's, Dorothy entered a contest on ways to improve NYC given by a local Television Station, because of her idea of the slant curb to street we can all move with ease from side walk to street.

Dorothy faithfully attended the Wilson Senior Center where she and friends enjoyed socializing. She would tell you her mind in a loving respectful way and embrace you lovingly afterward.

She leaves to carry on her memories: nieces, Janice David (husband, Robert David) and Ella Harris; nephew, Anthony Brown; various grandnieces, grandnephew; a great grandniece; long time devoted friends, EveLoe and Alice; faithful cousin, Edith; loving goddaughter, Rachel; and a host of dear friends.

Her generosity was unsurpassed, she always said, because God has given me I don't mind sharing.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
