Reflections of Life

Josephine Garris was born June 11, 1969 in Toms River, New Jersey to the late Joe and Shirley Garris.

Josephine graduated from Central Regional High School and attended college in Florida. Upon attending college, she played college basketball for a few years, and later moved back to Toms River where she then worked for Regal Manor Nursing Home.

She was a member of St. Thomas AME Church in Jackson, NJ.

Josephine was a kind hearted woman who was always willing to help and give to others. She was well known to everyone as Josephino “Tigga”. She enjoyed life, family and friends. She was a great mother whom loved her children dearly and did anything she could to provide a great life for them. She had a love for playing tunk, spades, basketball, and her infamous booty bounce.

Josephine was predeceased by three children, one baby girl and two sons, Devonte King and Anthony King, Jr. and brother, Timothy A. Garris (Poppa).

She leaves to mourn a husband, Anthony L. King; two sons, Tahliek L. Garris and Devont L. King; four brothers, Crawford Garris of Lakewood, NJ, Joseph, Jr. (Sally Garrison), Nate Garris and Harrie Garris all of Toms River, NJ; one brother-in-law, Dorian Tyler of Lakewood, NJ; two sister, Geneva Loften and Catherine Tyler both of Lakewood, NJ; three god children, Taliytha Young of Delaware, Janaya Giberson and Janaya Lassiter of Toms River; one granddaughter who she adored, Azlyn Zii’ana Garris; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends to cherish fond memories.

My praise shall of thee in the great congregation. I will pay my vows before them that fear him. The meek shall eat and be satisfied. They shall praise the Lord that seek him; your heart shall live forever.

Psalm 22;25-26

After forty-three years I am tired now. Don't cry, don't you know God knows best. Please, no sad hearts, no hung down heads. Don't weep for me I am not dead. I have another house you know, where only God's redeemed can go. I do not need this house of clay, so tenderly, carefully, lay it away.

The Family

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with sincere appreciation the many kind deeds and comforting expressions of sympathy extended to them in time of sorrow. Your prayers, visits, telephone calls and other acts of thoughtfulness will be greatly remembered. We pray that blessings will continuously be bestowed upon you.
