Obituary

In the Memory of Jose Tony Alicea, Sr., also known as "Padrino"

The sun rose on Jose on September 3, 1961 and the sunset on Jose,
May 18, 2014.

Jose worked as an international chef creating international dishes for various hotels chains in upstate New York.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: his two beautiful daughters, Crystal and Christina; along with his name sake his son, Jose Alicea, Jr.; his loving life partner, Sharon L. Eaddy, who stood by his side with love and support. Love for her is everlasting.

Time cannot steal the treasures that we carry in our hearts. Nor can it dim the shining thoughts our cherished past imports. May the memories of the one we love still cast their gentle glow to grade our days and light our path wherever we may go.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
