Obituary

On May 24, 2014, our beloved Floyd Mobley went home to be with the Lord. Floyd was born September 26, 1935 to the late Floyd Mobley and the late Ollie Mae Mobley.

Floyd was born in Chester, South Carolina. Floyd's father decided he and his son would relocate to Washington, DC where he attended school. During his middle twenties Floyd decided to follow his mother and other family members to Newark, New Jersey. While settling in Newark he married Jeanette Crawley. They were married until her death. Floyd continued to reside in Newark until his death.

Floyd had a number of jobs until he settled in at Parker Laboratories in Orange, New Jersey. He was the head of the shipping and receiving department for 27 years until retiring in 1995.

Floyd better known as "Mo" enjoyed his life. He loved to play cards and shoot pool. He thoroughly enjoyed going to the racetrack and bet on the horses. Mo loved to bowl and was very good at it especially if there was a little wager to be won. In his quiet time Mo was an enthusiastic reader. He loved reading about history and mythology. He had a vast collection of 1st edition books of which included books that come in a series. Sci-fi books were also a favorite read. Mo loved to have "challenging conversations", many times picking the "con" side of the situation and he would go back and forth which he loved. He enjoyed telling humorous stories and sometimes we often wondered whether it was true but we would always end up laughing. Mo was also known as an "impeccable" dresser; wearing bright colored suits with a derby to match. This was his "signature outfit." On another personal note, Mo was crazy, crazy about his grandchildren!!! Mo loved them from the time they were born and he experienced an unconditional love for them as they grew; loving each one of them equally.

Mo was a very generous man, always ready to help someone in need. He never wanted to see anyone "stressing" over anything; if he could lend a helping hand, he was ready. Everyone knew "Mo".

Mo leaves to cherish his fond memories: one son, Charles Collins Sr. and daughter-in-law, Ronette; three grandchildren, Charles C. Collins, Jr., KiAsia Collins and Dante Collins; God-daughter, Sheila Spencer Quarles; sister, Mary Lou Reynolds-Neal; sister, Loretta Oliphant; sister, Lena Mobley; brother, Timothy Mobley; brother, Leamarl Mobley and longtime companion, Wendy R. Hurling and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Floyd was preceded in death by: his wife, Jeanette Mobley and his mother, Ollie Mae Woods and his brother, James Mobley.

Psalm 16:5-11

Lord, you alone are my portion and my cup; you make my lot secure. The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; surely I have a delightful inheritance. I will praise the Lord, who counsels me; even at night my heart instructs me. I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken. Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest secure, because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead, nor will you let your faithful one see decay. You make known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.
