Obituary

John McRae, was born in North Carolina on February 4, 1920 to proud parents, Martha James McCoy and George Washington McRae.

John attended elementary school at Pendafor, North Carolina. He then came to New York to pursue his working career.

John worked for Columbia University as a Dietician for many years. He then pursued his career as a Custodian at City College for forty plus years in which he retired.

John loved to play the piano and listening to jazz. He was also a ladies man. He was a quiet man and enjoyed talking about life and back in the days. Everyone he met he told his story about how he walked the picket line and how hard he worked.

John was preceded in death by five sisters, Bee, Vonnie, Georgeanna, Martha and Louise and two brothers, Daniel and George.

He leaves to cherish: a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, family and friends. John was loved by his families, The McRae's, The Smalls, The McClean's, The Galloway's, The McDougal and The Crib's.

Uncle John we love you but, God loved you most. Now it's your time to rest under God's wings.

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.*
