Obituary

Cervin Morris was born on March 2nd 1984 at San Fernando General Hospital to parents Shermin McKenzie and Stanley Morris. Cervin was the eldest to both his parents. He was raised—by both his grandparents, Lorna and Eskey Gonzales in Quinam Road, Siparia. He grew up with his Aunt Joviann but these two were more like brother and sister. They had an unbreakable bond (wherever you saw one the other was sure to follow) they were inseparable.

When Cervin was older, he moved to Santa Barbara, California with his father. Cervin attended The University of California, Santa Barbara and graduated with a Bachelors of Arts in English. After graduating, he traveled to Chihuahua, Mexico where he worked with young adults—teaching them the English language. He enjoyed working with people and helping others.

Cervin had a vibrant personality, very charming, funny and infectious laugh. He was goofy at times and would always bring a smile to someone's face. He was a musician at heart and at one point in life wanted to become a rapper. Not many know that Cervin excelled at playing pan (a instrument popularly played in the Caribbean) and recorded a rap album. He was persistent, hardworking, generous and very forgiving.

It was his personality that brought him and Juliana together. They were together for a few years and on February 2nd 2014, they welcomed a little bundle called Aden. Cervin never got the chance to physically meet Aiden but every day when they video chat he would make Aden giggle uncontrollably—it was a beautiful relationship between father and son.

Cervin was in New York with his mother and siblings working to provide more for his own little family. Unfortunately what we all presumed would be forever was actually short lived. A beautiful spirit in the eyes of us all is a treasure in God's Kingdom.

Cervin Leaves Behind: his son, Aden; his parents, Shermin McKenzie and Stanley Morris; his fiancé, Juliana Lieser; his grandparents, Lorna and Eskey Gonzales; his three brothers and one sister, Zachary Morris, Denzel McKenzie, Rychelle McKenzie and Taylor McKenzie; his aunts, uncles, cousins and hundreds of friends

*Holy Spirit,
You who open my eyes to the beauty of the world
You who gave me the divine gift To forgive and forget the wrongs done to me
You who showed me the way to reach my ideals
You who never leave me
I want to thank you for everything And confirm once more I never want to be Separated from you, no matter how great The material desires may be I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory Now and forever
Amen*
