Obituary

Dowry Ingalls, was born to Gertude Gaines and the late Daniel Ingalls on July 13, 1966 in Newark, NJ at Beth Israel Hospital. Dowry was the fourth oldest of six children.

He attended Vailsburg High School in Ivy Hill of Newark in 1982, where he met his high school sweetheart, Lillie Williams. They later married in November of 1988 and had three beautiful children.

Dowry worked as a short-end cook for Newark Liberty Airport to support his family. After twelve years of marriage Dowry and Lillie agreeably decided to depart. He then resided to Poughkeepsie, NJ where years later he met his beloved partner of seven years, Corinthina Johnson (“Honey”).

While in New York, Dowry worked at FNS Factory and was a Home Depot Associate. Due to health issues, Dowry was no longer able to work. He spent all his free time traveling back to Jersey to visit and spend time with his family and friends. One of his favorite places to visit was Atlantic City.

Dowry was a caring and loving person who was a awesome father, a great friend, a impressive dancer and he always thought he was to cool for school. He was a believer of Jesus Christ and every now and then he attended Beulah Baptist Church in Poughkeepsie for Sunday service.

Sadly and suddenly on Saturday, May 31, 2014, Dowry passed away peacefully in his Poughkeepsie home.

He was predeceased by his father, Daniel, brother, Joseph and sister, Aleem.

Dowry is survived by: children, Joya, Andrea and Dowry T. Ingalls; grandchildren, Jasiyah Ingalls and Dowry Thomas Ingalls, Jr.; mother, Gertude Gaines, two sisters, Gloria (Lynn) and Sonya; one brother, Ivin; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“He who was often known, there wasn't a stranger that he didn't know-or a smile he kept to oneself. All who knew Dowry loved him, he will be missed but not forgotten.”

He Wished No One A Last Farewell

*He wished no one a last farewell,
nor even said goodbye.*

*He was gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

*They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget,*

*But time so far only proves
How much we miss him yet,
God gives us strength to face it,
And courage to bear the blow.*

*But what it meant to “love” and lose him
No one will ever know.*
