Obituary

Emma “Cindy” Parker-Brown was born on July 30, 1954 in Jamaica, New York to the late Lillia Parker. She was also predeceased by her brother, Michael Parker. Cindy’s young life was shaped by her three loving aunts, Ellen Haygood, Marie Diggs and Rena Parker (all deceased). She moved to Jersey City, NJ in her early teens and graduated from Snyder High School.

E

Cindy accepted Christ at an early age. When she relocated to Orange, NJ she joined Bethel Baptist Church and later New Hope Baptist Church (both in East Orange, NJ) where she would later set the foundation for her children.

On February 14, 1987, she married Frederick J. Brown and from this union three loving children, Keiron Jamile, Steven Lamount and April Nicole were born. The family moved from Orange, NJ to Roselle, NJ in 1993.

Cindy worked in banking for most of her adult life, including the former Howard Savings Bank and a few other local banks. In January 1997, Cindy began working at Atlantic Federal Credit Union in Kenilworth, NJ until her illness took over, Cindy was always a dedicated employee, friend and most of all a truly great mother.

B

Cindy loved the Lord and always studied bible scriptures. She enjoyed gospel music and attending church events with her friends. You could always find her reading a book on how to save money or clipping coupons and then sharing that information with others. She was such a peaceful person and everyone knows her daily routine consisted of having her “Tea Time”. Cindy enjoyed gardening and flowers and she really had a green thumb for plants. She was known for giving heartfelt advice to family, co-workers and her dear friends-and good advice too!

The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

Psalm 18:2
