Obituary

Deborah Brown, was born May 15, 1952 to the late Hallie Mae George and Clemon Brown at the Harlem Hospital Center. She was the fourth of eight children. On June 17, 2014 Deborah departed this life for eternal rest.

Deborah was educated in the NYC Public School system and later attended Central Commercial High School where she obtained her diploma in Secretarial Studies. She also attended BMCC where she studied Business Management.

Deborah began her professional endeavors at New York Telephone Co. (Ma Bell). She advanced from an entry level customer service position to an Executive Management Team member. Deborah provided over twenty-seven years of service to the phone company. She retired a young woman and decided to return to the workforce. Deborah then graced the New York State Department of Correctional Services with her professionalism and like ability. She became vested and then retired from the NYS Dept. of Correctional Services.

Deborah had a love for life, she enjoyed being around her son and her grandson. Deborah was a caring, compassionate, generous, and forgiving person. Her proudest moments were when she had the ability to help others. Deborah had a way of affecting everyone she encountered.

Deborah is survived by: her son, Wesley Brown; her grandson, Blake Parker Brown; three sisters, Melody Brown, Patricia Brown and Valerie Brown; her brother, Wendell Brown; sister-in-law, Linda; her niece, Sekon Brown; her nephew, Johnathan George Watley; her dear friend, Elizabeth Watkins; and a host of many family and friends.

Deborah was preceded in death by her sister, Tracey George and two brothers, Steven George and Anthony Brown.

I've Changed My Address

*I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.*
