Obituary

Frank Anderson was born on December 13, 1942 one of six children born to Robert and Jossie Mae Anderson in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Frank received his formal elementary education in the school system of his birth. His family migrated early to New Jersey where Frank attended high school.

Everyone who knew Frank could count on him to dress, he was a sharp dresser. He was articulate about his appearance and wore the finest looking suits. He was an incredible man who enjoyed singing. He enjoyed it so much that he and his friends formed a group called the Del Capris.

Frank was an ambitious man. He spent many years working as a manager for Dunkin Donuts in East Orange, NJ. Because he was so ambitious, Frank eventually opened his own donut shop in Newark on South Orange Avenue, where he remained until his retirement.

Frank had a big and generous heart. As he matured anyone who needed help could count on him for that help. Frank was a loving grandfather. One of his greatest pleasures was spending time with his granddaughter Taylor whenever he had the time.

He leaves behind to mourn their loss and to cherish fond memories: one son, Andre T. Anderson; one granddaughter, Taylor A. Anderson; one sister, Catherine Inabinette; one cousin, Gerry Dotson; and a host of family and friends.

Frank has joined in eternity his parents, Robert and Jossie Mae Anderson, two sisters, Katie Mae and Pearlie Mae and two brothers, Arthur "Joe" Lewis and Richard Anderson.

"I Refuse"

*I refuse to be discouraged, to be sad, or to cry
I refuse to be downhearted, and here's the reason why
I have a God who is mighty, who's sovereign and supreme
I have a God who loves me, and by grace I'm on His team.*

*When sickness comes to weaken me, to bring my head down low
I call upon my mighty God, into His arms I go
When circumstances threaten to rob me of my peace
He draws me close unto His breast, where all my strivings cease
I refuse to be defeated, my eyes are on my God
He has promised to be with me, as through this life I trod.
I'm looking past all my circumstances, to heaven's throne above
My prayers have reached the heart of God. I'm resting in His love.*

Acknowledgement
