Obituary

Virginia (Williams) Jackson, was born October 31, 1925 in Atlanta, Georgia to the late Augusta (Glover) Williams and Warner Williams. She had three brothers, (Pete, Ruben, and Will) and one sister, Mary.

The family left Atlanta for Indianapolis, Indiana before finally settling in New York City for better job opportunities. It was in New York City where she met the love of her life, Eucild Jackson. Their happy marriage produced one son, James Jackson.

For a time she worked in the garment industry and became active in labor relations. She later acquired her teaching credentials from City College and began working as a teacher's aide in local schools. She further served the community as a Parent Teacher Association President and as a union representative. Always willing to help out those in need, she helped many people acquire better housing and benefits. She retired in the late 1980's and lived a quiet life until her passing on the morning of June 23, 2014.

She was preceded in death by all of her siblings and her beloved husband, Eucild.

She leaves behind loving family members to cherish her memories.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
