Obituary

Keshon Ty'riek Porterfield lovingly known as “Keke” by family and friends, was born to Giselle Wenona Johnson and the late Christopher Micheal Porterfield, Sr. on January 21, 1997 in the Bronx, New York where he was raised. As a child, Keshon loved to read and tell jokes. Keshon was carefree. Keshon was known for his beautiful smile and he had a laugh that could make others forget about their difficulties for a little while.

Keshon attended C.E.S. 53, he also attended Mott Hall Middle School where he graduated from. He also attended Charter Rose Bronx High School in the Bronx.

He joined Missionary Baptist Church of Love where he was in the choir called the “Pastor Special” and where he also served as an usher for the church. Keshon was a faithful fan of True Religion and he loved the brand so much he placed a tattoo of the logo on both his shoulders.

This borrowed angel was called back home to God on June 22, 2014. Keshon leaves behind to mourn: a loving mother, Giselle Johnson; four sisters, Ny'Kesha Johnson, Christine Johnson, Jasmine Johnson and Bri'yonna Porterfield; his brother, Christopher Porterfield, Jr.; two grandmothers, Eluira Johnson and Alberta Porterfield of the Bronx, NY; a grandfather, John Porterfield, Sr. He also leaves a niece, Dy'Nesha Johnson; a nephew, Amir Johnson; two aunts, Pamela and Elizabeth Porterfield; one first cousin, La'shae Adams; and a host of loving family and friends who will cherish his memory.

Never Far Away

by Mary M. Green

I'm gone now,
but I'm still very near.
Death can never separate us.
Each time you feel a gentle breeze,
It's my hand caressing your face.

Each time the wind blows,
It carries my voice whispering your name.
When the wind blows your hair ever so slightly,
Think of it as me pushing a few stray hairs back in place.
When you feel a few raindrops fall on your face,
It's me placing soft kisses.
At night look up in the sky and see the stars shining so brightly.
I'm one of those stars and I'm winking at you and smiling with delight.
For never forget you're the apple of my eye.
