Obituary

Jerome Ansel “Jerry NewYork” Williams was born on January 9, 1947 to Rose Lee and George Williams. He departed this life on June 24, 2014.

Jerome “Jerry NewYork” Williams attended Bronx High School where he graduated from and began his career with the US Postal Service (Morgan GPO, NY) as a Postal Worker and a Shop Steward. Over the course of his life Jerome “Jerry NewYork” held many positions all of which he had great fortune to retire; from among them Dalraida Elementary School, Head Elementary School, Dozier Elementary School and he held a temporary position at Highland Avenue Elementary School until his death.

Jerome “Jerry NewYork” received our Lord and Savior under the leadership of Rev. Robert Askew at Highway Christian Church in New York.

He leaves to cherish his lasting memories a loving and devoted wife of twenty-five years, Claudell Felder-Williams; three daughters, Nicole Williams (Brooklyn, NY), Jennifer Neal (Newark, NJ) and Shameika Felder (Newark, NJ); three sons, Jerome A. Williams, Jr. and Andre Williams (Atlanta, GA) and Ernest D. Felder (Montgomery, AL); one brother, Michael Williams (New York, NY); three grandchildren, Savannah Linda Williams, Chloe’ Paris Page and Taivon Cullum; devoted friends, Rev. and Mrs. Askew, Catherine Kirkland and Charlie Crooms; and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and several friends in Montgomery, Alabama as well as across New York.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Rose Lee Williams, father, George Williams, sister, Judy Williams and brother Jimmy Williams all of New York.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part and we would also like to give a special thanks to St.
Anthony Baptist Church of Brooklyn, New York.
