Obituary

We are here today to celebrate the life of a wonderful woman, Cheryl Sherrine Jennings.

Cheryl Sherrine Jennings was born to Beverly Annette Jennings and Isaac Jones on April 29, 1962. As a child growing up, she took on a mother's role to her four brothers, Herbert, Robert, Daryl and Kevin and her three sisters, Elaine, Esther and Joann. She attended Walton High School in Bronx, NY. In the late 1980s, Cheryl decided to move to New Jersey with her family so that her and her children can have a better life. She went to a CNA Training School in New Jersey to become a Certified Nursing Assistant. She further went on to obtain her CNA certificate and license.

She went on to work with the elderly in a Nursing Home Facility in Monmouth County, New Jersey. Even then she was also helping people in need. She was a loving and devoted mother to her children and also a devoted grandmother to her sixteen grandchildren and also her great-grandson. She was a kind-hearted woman who helped her family and friends.

She was also a jack of all trades, whatever you needed her to be at a moment's notice, she could do it no questions asked and she did not judge you for it. That was the type of person she was, a special kind of a woman and mother.

Cheryl touched a lot of us in many different ways with her famous cooking. (everybody should know what I'm talking about). She loved each and every one of us sitting in this room today.

Cheryl entered into eternal rest on July 2, 2014. Her loving and kind spirit will continue to live through eleven children, Beverly, Yolanda, Laniece, Decosta, Dennis, Cheryl, Dujon, Dwayne, Douglas, Elaine and Danny Jennings as well as her sixteen, grandchildren, Dashawn, Daquan, Diavian, Alana, Dajon, Journey, Dujon, Alliyah, Deonya, Denise, Anniyah, Desmond AJ, Dyesia, Demi, Douglas Jr., and Daquan Jr.

Also, left to cherish her memories are her four brothers, Herbert, Robert, Daryl and Kevin; sister, Esther; aunt, Collette Harris, niece, nephews, grandnieces and nephews, cousins and a host of close friends too many to mention. Even though Cheryl is not here with us today, she leaves a little piece of "Cheryl" in her children and grandchildren. She would not want us to mourn but to celebrate her life. She would want her children, grandchildren and close friends to live their lives to the fullest and to also be loving and caring to others as she was.

Private Disposition

Woodlawn Cemetery & Crematory Bronx, New York

Your mother is always with you.
She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street.
She's the smell of certain
foods you remember,
flowers you pick, the fragrance of life itself.
She's the cool hand on your brow when you're not feeling well.
She's your breath in the air on a cold winter's day.
She is the sound of the rain
that lulls you to sleep,
the colors of a rainbow,
she is Christmas morning.
Your mother lives inside your laughter.
She's the place you came
from, your first home,
and she's the map you follow with every step you take.
She's your first love, your first friend, even your first enemy,
but nothing on earth can separate you....
not time, not space... not even death.
