Obituary

Nadiyah Khabirah Venable daughter of the late Robert Phifer and present Nydra Venable Weston, the first born of three girls, was born on March 18, 1990 in Newark, NJ. She leaves behind three siblings, Maisha Williams, Sahmad Phifer and Nytajah Weston and two beautiful children, Makiya Williams and Iee'Sa Jones ages seven and four years old.

Nadiyah attended Hawkins Elementary School then Arts High School where she took up Drama, Singing and Acting. She also attended Everset College where she studied business.

Nadiyah was a High Honor Roll student, straight A's. She was a very talented young lady who was also the life of the party, always full of high spirits but didn't mind putting you in your place. Having been called to rest June 30, 2014.

She also leaves behind a host of cousins, aunts, uncles and close friends. We all love her and she truly will be missed. Nadiyah we love you!

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are
lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
