Obituary

Lizzie Spruill

Devoted Mother and Caregiver

Lizzie Spruill, 96, died Thursday, July 10, at her Plainfield home with her family by her side.

Lizzie, affectionately known as Ms. Lizzie, was born October 24, 1917 in West Virginia to Effie Mae and Charles Johnson.

Before relocating to New Jersey from West Virginia in 1954 she owned and operated a Bed and Breakfast. Ms. Lizzie's special talent was cooking. She held numerous jobs but cooking was her calling. She worked as the head cook at Lockheed Electronics for more than 20 years before retiring. Even in retirement she continued to work. Ms. Lizzie drove a school bus for Amaker and Porterfield. She was truly a hard worker and devout Christian who always looked to help everyone.

Ms. Lizzie was a member and "The Mother of the Church at Word of Faith Ministries" (formerly Colonia First Baptist). She touched many lives and will be greatly missed.

Ms. Lizzie is survived by her 3 children, Johnnie (Brenda), Bonnilyn, and Christine Weatherspoon; 13 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; 3 brothers: Rev. Eugene (Barbara) Brookins, Bernard Brookins and Alphonso Brookins; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband Raymond, daughter Glenna Darlene Spruill, granddaughter Janiene Renee Weatherspoon; 2 sisters Annabelle Hawthorne, Catherine "Momma Nat" Spencer, 2 brothers Charles "Ruff House" Johnson and Leo Brookins.

Repast

Immediately following the interment family and friends are invited for the repast at the church.

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
