Reflections of Kenneth Tyrone Ashby's Life

Kenneth Tyrone Ashby was born December 4, 1958 to the proud parents Leonard and Lou Ellen Ashby.

Kenneth was raised in Manhattan, New York and attended Aviation High School. He furthered his education graduating from the State University of New York at New Paltz receiving a Master's Degree in Music Theory. He later received his second Master's Degree in Science Education from the City College of New York.

Kenneth worked for Our Saviour Lutheran School for over 13 years in Morris Park, Bronx, New York where he was a fifth grade Math and Music teacher. He also wrote the school anthem for Our Saviour.

For the past couple of years, Kenny was a band facilitator for Playmusicians at Dorrian's in Jersey City, NJ, he was a drummer with the house band, and performed on numerous occasions to the delight of the crowd.

He was also the Band Facilitator at the Jam NYC located in Midtown Manhattan for over 20 years. He was more than a great friend, drummer, musician, entertainer and band leader. Kenny was a living Treasured Intuition. He will be loved, and missed by all family and friends.

He is survived by two sisters, Michele and Tracey Ashby; two brothers, Leonard and Anthony Ashby; one brother-in-law, Tyrone Davis; nephews, Brian Ashby, Fernando Gonzalez, Cory Ashby, and Tyrone Davis, Jr.; one niece, Brianna Ashby; and he leaves behind a loving fiancé Doreen Cashin and three great nephews, Braylin McKenny, Anthony Ashby Gonzalez II, and Quinton Ashby Gonzalez and a host of other relatives and friends.

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when the day is done, I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times, laughing times
and bright and sunny days, I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave behind when the day is done.
