Obituary

Robert Arthur Richardson, was born in New York City on August 5, 1957 to the late Catherine and Thomas Richardson.

Educated in the NYC School system, Robert graduated from DeWitt Clinton High School in 1975.

Robert enjoyed attending concerts, movie theaters and car shows at the Jacob Javits Center. He had a love for photography and taking walks through the streets of Manhattan. He loved electronics, movies, music, and clothes. He was truly a shop-a-holic. He loved to tell jokes and make others laugh.

Robert was a free spirit, he loved to talk to people. He had a friendly personality and loved to make people happy. If you were around him and you were frowning, he would turn your frown upside down. He knew a lot about movies and their history and had one of the most extensive movie collections I have ever seen. He also loved to cook and made the best self-made pizza. In his free time he was a great handy-man, he could fix any electronics or household problem. If anyone needed his help they could always count on him.

Robert is survived by: his partner, Nancy; his daughter, Mia and Mia's mother, Karen; nieces, Sarita, Jasmean and Tracie; nephew, Thomas III; cousins, Candy, Gina, Kim, Shari, Dianne, Clyde Jr. and Edward; along with a host of friends who will forever cherish his memory and the good times.

To My Loved Ones

No reason for sorrow, no reason to cry. Look toward tomorrow and I'll tell you why my memories of you and yours of me are filled with love and laughter forever. You'll see no reason to worry, nor question God as to why you have lost me. No reason to say goodbye.

It's time for my journey home, a beautiful and peaceful trip that I must make alone. So just be strong and keep a smile, we'll only be apart for a little while. The love I've known is a very special part, the love I've shown came straight from the heart.

I leave you now to go on my way to a wonderful place where we'll be together someday. No reason at all as you can see. I'm with my Lord. He'll take care of me.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express heartfelt gratitude for the tremendous outpouring of love, concern and support given to us during this period of bereavement. This helped to ease our deep sorrow. Thank you.
