Obituary

Deacon Ellis Coleman was born on June 17, 1936 in Henderson, NC, to the late Livey Coleman and Cornelia Coleman. He was the fifth child out of eight children. On Monday, July 14, 2014 at East Orange General Hospital, in East Orange, New Jersey, Deacon Coleman answer God's call and entered into a peaceful rest.

Deacon Coleman was educated in Henderson, NC public school system. In search of a better life, Deacon Coleman decided to relocate to Newark, New Jersey in 1969.

In 1979, Deacon Coleman met who will become the love of his life, the late Betty Coleman. They were joined in Holy Matrimony together as one in Christ Jesus.

Deacon Coleman began his working career at CE and DE, Candy Company as a candy mixer for 25 years, until his retirement.

During that time he accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior and later joined New Bethel Baptist Church in the late 80's when he became a Trustee and later a Deacon and then on to become, Chairman of the Deacon Broad. In 2004, Deacon Coleman became under leadership of Rev London Jones, when he remarried Sarah Coleman. He was an active member in the church. He was very faithful in rebuilding New Bethel. Whenever anything had to be done in the house of the Lord, You can count on Deacon Coleman. He was a member of the male chorus, and the Men's Department. He loved singing, "I want to be loved."

He leaves to carry on his memories and legacy, his son Ellis (Cheryl) Coleman Broabie of Richmond, VA, Cliff Sabb and the late Christopher Plumber of Newark, NJ, Cathy and Diane Sabb of Newark, NJ, two sisters Mary ( Roylee) Coleman of Henderson, NC, Louise (James) Henderson of East Orange, NJ, a brother William (Shirley) Coleman of Little Washington, NJ, ten grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren, Makala Sabb of the home and a host of nieces, nephew and other relatives and friends.

Deacon Ellis Coleman, you have touch the lives of a lot of people, you've been an inspiration to all whom you've met through the years and you're going to be greatly missed by all.

I've Changed My Address

I've changed my address to Heaven

I've crossed the Great Divide.

I know there's no sorrow or crying,

Because I've reached the other side.

I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

That's the place where you'll find me.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

I bid this world goodbye.

I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.

I have no burdens or heartaches

and from tears I am now free.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

That's the place to find me.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.

You can find us walking together,

for where He is, I'll always be.

I've changed my address to Heaven,

That's the place you'll find me.
