Obituary

Kabeer Kasef Bishop, Son of John and Devera Bishop was born on July 5, 1994 in Newark, NJ. He went home to be with the Lord on July 9, 2014.

Kabeer attended and graduated West Side High School. He worked at Urban League where he was a File clerk and was in training to counsel and work with young people.

Kabeer loved being around his family and friend. Especially being with his mom whom he loved dearly and his little sister "FaFa" as he called her.

Kabeer loved having fun and always had you laughing about something he loved to tell jokes. He was loved by everyone he met; everyone was his friend.

He is predeceased by his Great Grandmother Irene Thomas; grand father Bay Roosevelt Williams; Uncle Maurice Alston.

He leaves to celebrate his life, his mother Devera and father John Bishop; four siblings, Amanda Jefferson, Jarrell Delaney, Joy and Faith Bishop; Grandmother, Ruth Jefferson; Aunts Lisa, Lakisha Jefferson; Debbie(Maurice) Dunell, Dottie (Dwayne) Campbell, Lori Bishop; Uncles, Glenn Jefferson, Marvin Alston; Kevin, Malik, Jamil, and Steven Bishop. The Johnson, the Mercado family, The whole entire 17th Street family, and a host of Great-Aunts, Great-Uncles, Cousins, family and friends.

Reflections

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
