Obituary

Richard Muhammad who was born Richard Brown was born in Queens Hospital on October 2, 1966. From parents Catherine and Franklyn Brown. Richard had two siblings, sister, Camela and his brother, Christopher.

Although he was born in Queens, Richard was raised in the Flatbush Section of Brooklyn. He went to Ditmas Middle School and graduated from Neautric High School. He was outstanding in mathematics. He decided after high school to enter Sallemae Higher Education to study accounting and business management.

Richard worked for a law firm and also Kings County Hospital. He also had a strong love for protecting and serving, even spirituality. In the late 80's, he joined the Nation of Islam. He became a F.O.I., where he served as a guard and later rising up in the ranks as a Lieutenant. Richard had a strong love for peace, justice and equality.

Richard loved to eat, his favorite foods were baked chicken, rice and black bean soup. Which he requested often for dinner from his wife.

Richard left this life doing what he loved, protecting and serving as a security guard in Westchester on July 21, 2014.

He leaves in memory: his wife Stacey; daughters, Asia, Nisa and Amira; sons, Franklyn, Jaleel and Malik and their sister, Shanice and his grandchildren, Kahlil Brown and Riley Brown.
