Reflections of Life

Ella Mae Perry-Pittman, born February 17th, 1941 in St. Augustine, Florida to the union of the late Willie Mitchell Sr. and Ellouise Mitchell. She departed this life on July 25th, 2014.

Ella graduated from South Side High School and Essex County College. Ella was employed by East Orange General Hospital, Grace West Center and later retired from Babyland Day Care. She had a special love for her grandchildren, great-grandchildren and as well as other people's children.

She had a passion for helping others and called "Mom" by many. Ella was always willing to give and help anyone in need. She was the glue that held the family together and cherished by everyone.

She was married to the late George Pittman. Ella was blessed with eight children, Amos (deceased), Ronald (deceased), Timothy, Kim, Dwayne, Carl Perry, Roxanna Logan (Andre), and Norman T. Pittman (Sharonda). One sister, Carolyn Y. Leakes (Clydell) of East Orange, NJ and one brother Willie Mitchell Jr. (deceased) of Perryville, MD (Betty). Sisters-in-law, Eva Cofield, (Rossi), Marion Daniels, grandchildren Shonda, Sameen, Jamey (Charmaine), Durwin, Kelly, Antonio, Maurice, Tiffany, Chanel, Norman Jr., Ebony, Jamal, Nadia, Christine and Christopher, seventeen great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of friends and relatives.
