Reflections of Life

Norman R. Price, was born in Albemarle County, Virginia on November 1, 1948 to the late Virginia (Timberlake) Price and Theodore Price.

Norman moved to Paterson in 1963 where he attended the Paterson schools. He was employed at Ames Metal in Saddle Brook, New Jersey.

Norman was very family oriented he loved all his family! Norman loved attending family parties. One of his hobbies was dressing. He stayed in the mirror! He had to iron everything and kept himself sharp and neat.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Dawn Stringfellow, his mother, Virginia Price, father, Theodore Rosavellte Price, two sisters, Ruby Jackson and Geneva Price.

On Thursday, July 24, 2014, Norman R. Price departed this life and entered eternal rest.

Norman leaves to cherish fond memories: one sister, Josephine (Price) Miller; care givers and nieces, Peggy and Patsy Price; special nephew, Kevin Price; special friend, Emmit Mason; and a host of other nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
