Obituary

Eugene was born November, 11, 1931 to the late Emma Snell-Jackson and Leepoleon Jackson. From this union he was the first born of seven children.

He accepted Christ at an early age. Shortly after his arrival to New York he married the late Ollie M. Thomas-Jackson. From this union they had two children, Theresa and Vincent. He joined Calvary AME church where he remained a faithful member.

In December of 1993 Eugene retired from Northrop Grumman and C. W. Post University of Long Island, NY.

Eugene enjoyed helping others, especially those who were less fortunate. He was always ready to lend a helping hand. He loved his children, grands, and great granddaughter.

He has left us in body, but will always be remembered by his smile, most of all, his spirit.

Eugene is joined with his wife, Ollie M. Thomas-Jackson (deceased) and is survived by six children; Theresa (deceased), Vincent, Mark, Richard, Anita, and Eric, his mother, Emma Snell-Jackson (deceased), and his father, Leepoleon Jackson Sr. (deceased), two brothers; Roosevelt Jackson (deceased), Leepoleon Jackson, four sisters; Lula (deceased), Nora, Stella, and Flora, three daughters-in-law; Maria, Lydia, and Deannine, seven grand children; Stephanie, Vincent Jr., Malasia, Jordan, Matthew, Tiffany, and Brandon, one great granddaughter; Jade` Lyn, six sisters-in-law; Flossie (deceased), Bessie, Ida, Betty, Ola Eloise, and Greta, and eight brothers-in-law; Joe, Loucious and Clementine Artis (deceased), Albert (deceased), Howard (deceased), Early (deceased), and Jim (deceased).

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
