Obituary

Helen Berwick was born July 11, 1938 to the parents Lillian and Thomas Johnson, Sr. They resided in Warsaw, VA.

She came to New Jersey at a young age where she met Theodore Bowers. They had three children, Valerie Delapara, Linda Johnson and Robert Bowers. Then she got married to George Berwick on December 31, 1977 until his departure December 26, 1999.

She worked for Interbake Food for forty-two years. MaMa, Auntie Helen, Mommy, Grandma was known for her good cooking especially her potato salad, pound cakes and cheese cakes.

Helen was a very classy woman. If she had something to tell you, she would be so low keyed and classy you wouldn't even know you'd been told off. Helen never raised her voice, she was a very calm woman.

She leaves behind: three children, Valerie Delapara, Linda Johnson and Robert Bowers; five grandchildren, Vanesha, Allen, Tyrinah, Tasha and Trevor; great grandchildren, Dejah, Mia, Bryttani, Trevor 3rd, Angela and Carter. She will be missed by her only surviving brother, Thomas Johnson, Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mommy, Auntie, Grandma you will be truly missed mainly that sense of humor every trip, every bus ride, every cookout we had so much fun with her.

Love You Always.

Cherish The Moment

*The old saying "Here today, gone tomorrow,"
A phrase said with such simplicity can bring so much sorrow.*

Loving a friend or loved one is always tough,

May even at times, seem too rough.

Just remember, the pain won't last forever.

In your heart and soul you'll always be together.

It won't rain too long.

Just try and be strong.

Have faith and God will see you through the sad times.

Just try and keep a positive frame of mind.

Remember, he or she is in a better place.

Think about it, it just might bring a smile to your face.

Where there is no more pain,

No more rain.

Where there is always a rainbow,

And light with that peaceful glow.

So live every moment not dwelling on the past,

Because you never know when this minute might be your last.

Vanesha Delapara

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
