Obituary

Ms. Mamie Louise Lyttle, was born on August 8, 1926, to the late Robert Harris and Lydia Lyttle in Salisbury, North Carolina.

Mamie was educated in the Salisbury Public School system. She, along with her sister, the late Mary Barrow, followed their dreams and moved to New York City in 1942.

Mamie worked as a domestic caregiver for her entire professional career. The families that Mamie worked with during this time, were more than work to her, they became extensions of her family. After she retired, Mamie spent her time with her family and fellowshiping in the Lord.

Mamie was an extremely loving and caring person who loved and enjoyed her friends and family. Mamie was a person that loved to travel, fish, bake and study her Bible. She may have been little in stature, but definitely a force to be reckoned with!

Mamie was preceded in death by: her brothers, John Swann, Calvin Swann and Joseph Swann, her sister, Mary Barrow and her son-in-law, William H. Best, Jr.

Mamie leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Sandra L. Best; her granddaughters, Keisha Best and Kamille Best Livermore; two great-grandchildren, Tyler Doherty and Brooklyn Livermore; two sisters, Catherine Kinder and Willie Ruth Carr; one brother, Walter Swann; sister-in-law, Mrs. Willie Mae Swann; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Mamie inspired us all, and will be greatly missed by many.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Acknowledgement

The family would like to express their gratitude for the numerous expressions of love and support that have been shown to them during their time of bereavement. With special thanks to the Raines Family and the Huss Family.
