Obituary

Anna Belle (Blonde) Montgomery was born October 25, 1917. One of eight children of the late Augustus and LuTishia Hawkins in Diffie, GA. She went home to be with the Lord on August 4, 2014.

Aunt Blonde as she was known was educated in Decatur County, GA. She was baptized in Diffie, GA at the age of thirteen.

She married Arthur Lee Montgomery in Decatur, GA on December 26, 1948. Later they relocated to Newark, New Jersey.

For many years she worked for Charms in Bloomfield, New Jersey until she retired. When she and Uncle Art retired they moved back to Bainbridge, GA she helped to care for her brother, Pet during his illness. She also cared for her sister Margaret's grandchildren. She did all she could for whoever needed her help. Aunt Blonde had a "helps" ministry. She always helped her sister, Margaret in any way she could. The both of them would always see that the relatives in the south were given something at Christmas.

She was an independent woman even in her old age. Her desire was to do what she could for herself while she could.

Aunt Blonde is the last of the Hawkins siblings. She is predeceased by her brothers, Pet, Jerome, Fred, William and Chauncey and sisters, Ellease and Margaret.

She leaves to mourn and to cherish her memory: her nephew, Aaron Smiley, Jr. (Linda); niece, Brenda Vick (Curtis); and a host of other nieces, nephews, great, and great great nieces and nephews, and other relatives and friends. Most of all, she was a great aunt to all.

*God saw you getting tired
So He did what He thought was best
He came and stood beside you
And whispered "Come and rest"
You wished no one a Fond Farewell
Nor ever said "goodbye"
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
When God called you to come and rest
You didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home.*
