Obituary

Louise Brown was born in Colleton, South Carolina to the late John Abraham Brown and Victoria Brown. She entered into eternal peace on Sunday, August 3, 2014 at East Orange General Hospital, East Orange, NJ.

She was known by family and friends, as “Monkey”. She grew up in Newark, NJ and worked at Woodbridge Development Center where she retired.

Louise was a very devoted and loving mother and grandmother, known for her delicious home cooking. She certainly loved the Lord and that is why she was a very generous and giving person admired by all. She also was a faithful member of Bethel New Life Church.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a brother and sister, Bobby Brown and Ida Brown; two children, Abraham Brown and Denise McGriff; seven grandchildren, Latif, Ibrahim, Alnisa, Elijah, Saladeen, Iyana and Isiah; six great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. The family extend their greatest gratitude to her godchildren and beloved goddaughter, Tiffany Williams.

To My Dearest Family,

Some things I'd like to say..

But first of all, you need to know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing you from heaven where I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness, just eternal love.

Please don't be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you, when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and said, "I welcome you."

God gave me a list of things that he wished for me to do
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.

When you think of my life on earth and all those loving years
Because you're only human, there are bound to be some tears.

But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.
Remember there would be no flowers unless there was some rain.

I wish that I could tell you all that God had planned.
But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.
I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.

Now I am content...that my life has been worthwhile
Knowing that along this way, I made somebody smile.

From your loving, Grandchildren
